UNITED WAY

of Northern New York

Registration is open for our final cohort programs of 2022! We received great feedback from the winter and spring cohorts and worked with over 30 leaders across the four programs. The Leadership Learning Circles are cohort-based learning that are:

- Composed of five to six leaders committed to supporting one another
- Facilitated discussions, support, resources, and relationships
- Confidential, supportive, and focused on learning and action
- Meet once a week for five to seven weeks (depending on the program) to:
 - share insights and reflections on session materials
 - support and challenge each other
 - further develop specific skills with a focus on growing as a leader

EXPANDING YOUR GRANT SEEKING STRATEGY (WHILE STILL BEING SUSTAINABLE)

Do you feel the pressure to write more applications each year? Yet with the same capacity for yourself and your team?

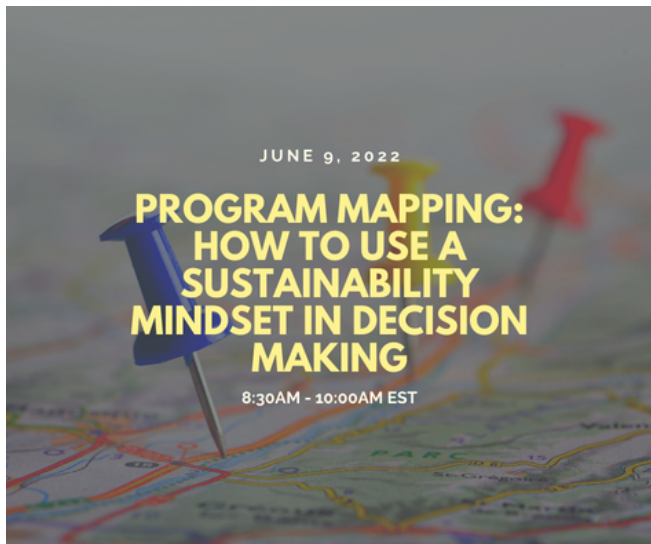

We'll walk through a strategy for expanding your grant seeking strategy in an organization while keeping your individual and team capacity front and center to ensure your work pace is sustainable.

PROGRAM MAPPING: HOW TO USE A SUSTAINABILITY MINDSET IN DECISION MAKING

This workshop provides an overview of one of the most helpful tools a nonprofit can utilize: the Sustainability Matrix Map as developed by Jeanne Bell and Steve Zimmerman.

A key step in understanding organizational capacity, this tool simultaneously measures profitability and mission impact for your programs (including your fund development and marketing efforts.)
