Please share your feedback!

We are beginning the 2023 program planning process and would like to hear your thoughts. Should all programs be virtual? Should some programs be in-person? Should all programs be in-person? What topics would you like on the schedule? What are the greatest challenges you are experiencing with personal and/or staff development?

Please consider sharing your feedback by completing the North STAR Center for Professional Development 2023 Community Input Survey

PUTTING THE HUMAN EXPERIENCE FIRST: AN INTRODUCTION TO HUMAN-CENTERED DESIGN

In this session we will introduce you to the main principles of human-centered design, an innovative approach to problem solving that puts people and their experiences at the center of the process.

Participants will learn about each phase of the design process and how to apply them to unique challenges using real examples from organizations from a variety of sectors.

VICARIOUS TRAUMA TRAINING

Our communities depend on you, the helping professionals who help community members during their times of need. But who takes care of you? This training provides important information about how we, as helping professionals, are impacted by the work we do, not to mention other sources of stress in our lives.

We will share several different practical ways to help you cope with and recover from the stress in your life. We hope you join us for some much deserved self-care.
