TRACKING A DIVERSITY OF PERSPECTIVES ON A BOARD

These days we are seeing frequent conversations about the important topic of nonprofit board diversity. Most organizations make sincere efforts to recruit board members that reflect the population they serve.

The workshop encourages organizations to each honestly reflect on what “diverse perspectives” might mean, and then shows how to tailor a Board Matrix to your organization’s unique requirements.

LEADERSHIP: WHERE THE MISSION MEETS THE MOMENT

This two-hour workshop will examine leadership from three distinct but interconnected perspectives:

1. The role of the leader as the keeper, defender and interpreter of the agency mission.
2. The role of the leaders as the chief architect of the organization's culture.
3. How leaders must FIRST be leaders of themselves.
